COLUSA COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT

SECTION 4 SETTING OF TRIAL AND TRIAL - CIVIL

RULE 4.01 SETTING OF CASES FOR TRIAL - GENERAL CIVIL CASES

All general civil cases (as defined in Rule 2.09(B)) filed on or after July 1, 1992, or transferred by a court in another jurisdiction on or after July 1, 1992, shall be subject to this Rule 4.01.

(1) POLICY STATEMENT

The California Government Code and the California Rules of Court mandate that trial courts actively manage and supervise the pace of litigation from the date of filing to disposition by reference to specific procedure and guidelines. The court shall implement that mandate in the following manner in light of currently scarce judicial resources and the cooperative past efforts of the bar. The court will establish certain case development benchmarks but, generally, will not intervene with orders to show cause or early status conferences, in favor of conducting a comprehensive case management/pretrial conference no later than 180 days after the complaint is filed by which time all parties, if diligent, should be prepared to declare the case to be at issue; to identify all issues to be tried; to inform the court relative to case management issues; to summarize the pertinent results of discovery activity; to address alternative dispute resolution and settlement; and to schedule arbitration, trial or other proceedings.

(2) CASE DEVELOPMENT BENCHMARKS

The court adopts the following time period for progression of general civil cases:

- (a) Service of complaint and filing of proof of service within 60 days of filing.
- (b) Filing and service of responsive pleadings within 30 days of service of the complaint.
- (c) Except to the limited extent permitted by Government Code Section 68616, no extensions of time shall be allowed on stipulations between the parties. To the extent extensions are permitted upon stipulation pursuant to the referenced authority, they shall be in writing and promptly filed with the court.
- (d) Extensions of time for periods longer than permitted by statute upon stipulation may be permitted by the court, upon ex parte application which conforms with California Rules of Court, Rules 3.1200 through 3.1207.
- (e) At the time of the case management/pretrial conference, if not earlier, the court shall determine if the parties have complied with these case development benchmarks. If one or more parties have not complied, the court may, in its discretion, impose sanctions permitted by law at that time, without further notice, after the parties have had an opportunity to be heard.

- (f) Until otherwise designated by the court at the case management/pretrial conference, each case is presumed to be on a 12 month plan from filing to disposition. (California Rules of Court, Rule 3.714; Standards of Judicial Administration Section 2.2(f)).

(3) PROCEEDINGS IN ADVANCE OF CASE MANAGEMENT/PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

- (a) In its discretion on a case-by-case basis, the court may schedule status conferences and OSC hearings in advance of the case management/pretrial conference on timely notice to the parties. Unless expressly waived by the court, personal appearance by all counsel of record or the parties, if unrepresented, is required at any such conference.
- (b) Nothing in these Rules shall be construed to preclude a party from seeking preferential trial setting, as provided in the Code of Civil Procedure, upon a duly noticed motion in advance of the case management/pretrial conference.
- (c) Nothing in these Rules shall be construed to preclude a party from seeking a referral to Judicial Arbitration, pursuant to California Rules of Court, Rules 3.811 and 3.812, upon a duly noticed motion in advance of the case management/pretrial conference.
- (d) Nothing within these Rules shall be construed to preclude a party from seeking early disposition of an uncomplicated case, as defined and provided in California Rules of Court, Rule 3.714, upon a duly noticed motion in advance of the case management/pretrial conference, which establishes that the case is at-issue; that no general or exemplary damages are sought; that there are no more than two sides to the case; and that presentation of evidence will take no more than one-half of a court day.

(4) THE CASE MANAGEMENT/PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

(a) NOTICE

At the time of the status conference, the court shall order plaintiff to serve a Notice of Case Management Conference (hereinafter the "Notice") which shall specify the date and time and place of the case management/pretrial conference. Plaintiff shall serve a complete copy of the Notice upon any party who has been served with the complaint at that time.

COLUSA COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT

(b) SCHEDULING

The case management/pretrial conference shall be set for a date no later than 180 days from the filing of the complaint.

(c) CASE MANAGEMENT/PRETRIAL STATEMENT

No later than fifteen (15) days before the case management/pretrial conference, each party shall file and serve on all other parties a case management/pretrial statement which addresses with detail and particularity each area of inquiry designated in the Notice. The Case Management Statement shall state that all parties have met and conferred on all areas designated in the notice. The statement shall also indicate whether there is an alternative dispute resolution process in which the party would be willing to participate on a voluntary basis.

(d) PRETRIAL ORDER

At or immediately following the case management/pretrial conference, the court shall issue its order addressing the status of the case and further proceedings.

Sanctions for violations of these Rules, if any violations occurred up to and including the time of the case management/pretrial conference, will be considered by the court at this time.

(e) FURTHER STATUS CONFERENCE

Further status conferences will not be set as a matter of course in each case but on a case-by-case basis when circumstances dictate.

RULE 5.12 DEFAULT PROVE-UPS

(A) Except in cases concerning which the clerk may enter judgment without review by a judicial officer (California Code of Civil Procedure Section 585(a)), it is the general policy of the court that prove-up applications and evidence in support thereof be presented in written form, unless prohibited by law (Code of Civil Procedure Section 585(c)).

Affidavits and declarations must show, affirmatively, that the affiant or declarant is competent to state those things that appear therein. Generally, the court

(Amended, effective 1/1/07)

RULE 5.13 FACSIMILE FILING

This Rule is adopted in accordance with the provisions of California Rules of Court, Rule 2.300 et seq. and applies to civil, probate, and family law proceedings, with the exception that wills, codicils, bonds or undertakings shall not be filed by facsimile transmission. A document that is to be issued by the court (including, but not limited to, a summons, letters of administration, letters testamentary, and a writ of execution) shall not be sent to the court by facsimile transmission.

(A) DEFINITIONS

As used in this Rule, unless the context requires otherwise:

- (a) “Facsimile transmission” means the transmission of a copy of a document by a system that encodes a document into electrical signals, transmits such electrical signals over a telephone line, and reconstructs the signals to print a duplicate of the original document at the receiving end.
- (b) “File” or “filing” means the facsimile transmission of a document to a fax filing agency for filing with the court.
- (c) “Fax” is an abbreviation for “facsimile” and refers, as indicated by the context, to facsimile transmission or to a document so transmitted.
- (d) “Fax filing agency” means an entity that receives documents by fax for processing and filing with the trial courts. An attorney or law office may act as a fax filing agency for the attorney, the law office or others.

(B) COMPLIANCE WITH CRC RULES 2.100-2.119 AND THE LOCAL RULES OF COURT

- (a) A fax document shall comply with California Rules of Court, Rule 2.100 through 2.119 and all applicable Rules of this Court.
- (b) An exhibit that exceeds 8½ by 11 inches shall be reduced to 8½ by 11 inches before it is transmitted. The court may require the party to file the original of an exhibit that has been filed by fax.
- (c) Any document which contains an exhibit which cannot be accurately transmitted by fax shall not be filed by fax.

COLUSA COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT

(C) NO DIRECT TRANSMISSION FOR FILING

Facsimile produced documents may not be transmitted for filing directly to any fax machine owned or operated by the court or the clerk's office. In order to be filed with the court, all facsimile produced documents must be presented for filing at the filing window. All requested fees must be paid at the time of filing.

(D) QUALITY OF FACSIMILE PRODUCED DOCUMENTS

In order to be filed with the court, all facsimile produced documents must be produced on plain eight-pound bond paper by laser printer or better quality technique, and in terms of legibility, quality of paper and permanence must be of equal or better quality than non-facsimile produced documents.

(E) FAX FILING AGENCY

A party may transmit a document by fax to a fax filing agency for filing with the trial courts. The fax filing agency acts as the agent of the filing party and not as an agent of the court.

(F) DUTIES OF THE FAX FILING AGENCY

A fax filing agency that receives documents for filing shall:

- (1) Prepare the documents so that the documents comply with California Rules of Court, Rule 2.100 through 2.119 and any other requirements for filing with this court.
- (2) Take the documents to the court.
- (3) Ensure that the words "By fax" are included on the first page immediately below the title of the document.
- (4) File the document with the court.
- (5) Pay any applicable filing fee.

(G) REQUIREMENTS FOR ADVANCE ARRANGEMENTS

A fax filing agency shall not be required to accept papers for filing unless appropriate arrangements for payment of filing fees and service charges have been made by the transmitting agency before the papers are transmitted to the fax filing agency.

COLUSA COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT

(H) CONFIDENTIALITY

A fax filing agency shall keep all documents transmitted to it confidential except as provided in these Rules.

(I) RESERVED

(J) SIGNATURES

- (1) A party who files a signed document by fax represents that the original physically signed document is in his or her possession or control.
- (2) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, including Evidence Code sections 255 and 260, a signature produced by facsimile transmission will be treated as an original.
- (3) Within fifteen (15) days after service of a signed facsimile filing, any other party may serve a demand for production of the original physically signed document. The demand shall not be filed with the court. Failure to serve a demand is a waiver of the right to demand production of the physically signed original.
- (4) If a demand for production of the original physically signed document is made, the filing party shall arrange a meeting at which the original physically signed document can be examined.

(K) NOTATION OF FACSIMILE FILING

Each facsimile filing shall include the words “By fax” or “By facsimile” on the first page immediately below the title of the document. If a party is represented by an attorney, the attorney shall also include his or her facsimile machine telephone number, designated as a “fax” number, as part of the attorney’s name, address, State Bar membership number, and telephone number on the document.

RULE 6.02 BAIL

(A) GENERAL PROVISIONS

(1) REQUESTS FOR INCREASE OR REDUCTION

When bail has been set by a judge out of court, any further out of court requests for the increase or reductions of bail shall be made to the judge who set such bail. - (b) Where the defendant has been transported back to Colusa County at public expense, those expenses shall be assessed at actual cost.

COLUSA COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT

(B) SOURCE OF BAIL - PENAL CODE SECTION 1275.1 - PROCEDURE

RULE 7.02 RESERVED

RULE 7.03 PRETRIAL MOTIONS

- (A) All Statutory and Rules of Court procedures control, and the court hereby incorporates by reference the requirements of California Rules of Court, Rule 4.111 pertaining to the making and timing of pretrial motions and opposition thereto, in Superior Courts.
- (B) In the event that the moving papers are not timely filed for the assigned hearing date without good cause demonstrated, the motion may be deemed waived by the moving party.
- (C) Failure to serve or file papers in opposition to a motion or other application to the court for an order, other than an ex-parte application, may, in the court's discretion, be deemed a waiver of any objections and an admission that the motion or other application is meritorious. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in any matter in which the opposition is based upon a factual dispute, only, as distinguished from a disputed legal issue, opposition papers shall not be required.
- (D) If any authority other than California cases, statutes, constitutional provisions or State or local rules is cited in any Motion or Memorandum of Points and Authorities, a copy shall be attached to the papers in which the authorities are cited and tabbed as exhibits. If a California case is cited before the time it is published in the Advance Sheets of the Official Reports, a copy of that case shall also be attached and be tabbed.
- (E) Motions to continue any hearing, including trial, are disfavored and shall be denied unless the moving party, pursuant to and in accordance with Penal Code Section 1050, presents affirmative proof that the ends of justice require a continuance. A

RULE 7.04 TRIAL SETTINGS

Trial dates will generally be set at the first appearance of counsel or at the pretrial conference. Generally, the court will select a trial date approximately thirty (30) days from the pretrial conference or first appearance of counsel.

(Amended, effective 7/1/97)

RULE 7.05 PRETRIAL CALENDAR

(A) All counsel shall attend a trial readiness conference, generally held within two (2) weeks prior to the jury trial date, prepared to indicate to the court a readiness to proceed to jury trial. The obligations of the parties and counsel are as set forth in California Rules of Court, Rule 4.112 pertaining to Superior Courts, and incorporated herein by this reference.

(B) Defense counsel trying the case shall be present at the trial readiness conference. Defense counsel shall insure the defendant(s) presence.

(C) Both sides shall be fully prepared and able to discuss the facts of the case and the availability of witnesses for trial. The trial readiness conference shall not be continued without actual good cause shown, as defined in Penal Code Section 1050. It is the policy of the court to conduct one trial readiness conference for each case.

(D) The court will be prepared to accept dispositions at the trial readiness conference. Following confirmation of the jury trial, the court will not accept any dispositions other than dismissal of the complaint in its entirety by the People, or a plea of guilty to the complaint in its entirety by the defendant(s). This practice is adopted due to the fact that this court orders a jury panel for a specific case and the cancellation of a jury will result in unnecessary expenditure of public funds and the denial of the use of that trial date for another case.

However, if the defendant has been charged with violation of Section 23111 or 23112, or subdivision (a) of Section 23113, and he has been previously convicted of a violation of the same section, the court may declare the bail forfeited, but shall issue a bench warrant for arrest of the person charged, except in cases where the magistrate finds that undue hardship will be imposed upon the defendant by requiring him to appear, the magistrate may declare the bail forfeited and order that no further proceedings shall be had in such case."

- (A) A party may have witnesses present and may request subpoenas for their appearance, but must do so at least five (5) days prior to the trial date.
- (B) In the event a party desires to be represented by counsel, the party shall notify the court at least five (5) working days in advance of the scheduled trial date and the matter shall then be reset to an appropriate trial calendar.

The claim shall include an itemized statement of the services rendered, the time devoted to each service, the sum requested for each item of service, the date of service, the items and amounts of reasonably necessary expenses incurred, and the total amount requested by such attorney.

Before incurring expenses for ancillary services, which are defined to include, without limitation, services of investigators, experts, paralegals, and transcriptionists who are not salaried employees of the attorney, the attorney shall make written application for authorization from the court to do so. If the attorney fails to complete such training, the court shall proceed under subdivision (F) of this rule.

(D) DEEMED COMPETENT

Upon submission of a Certification of Attorney Competence which demonstrates that the attorney has met the minimum standards of training and experience of these rules, the attorney shall be deemed competent to practice before the court in dependency proceedings unless the court determines, based on conduct or performance of the attorney before the court in a dependency proceeding within the six (6) month period prior to the submission of the certification to the court, that the attorney does not meet minimum competency standards. In the case of retained counsel, the court shall notify the party that his or her attorney has failed to meet the minimum standards required by these rules. The determination whether to obtain substitute private counsel shall be solely within the discretion of the party so notified.
